The UNIVERSITY of NORTH CAROLINA at CHARLOTTE

LIVE. LEARN. BE GLOBAL.

Charlotte, North Carolina

- Second largest financial district in the US
- Population: 2.6 million in metro area
- Nickname: The Queen City

Our program is located on the campus of UNC Charlotte in Charlotte, North Carolina. As the largest city in the state, Charlotte is an excellent place to live and study. Its fast-paced, diverse, and ever-growing nature makes it a perfect home for international students.

The city is within driving distance to the Appalachian Mountains, beaches of the Atlantic Ocean, and other major cities such as Atlanta, Georgia; and Washington, DC.

Explore the City!

UNC Charlotte is connected to the city via the campus light rail station. UNC Charlotte is located 16km from downtown Charlotte, which is a 22 minute trip on the light rail.

Charlotte, North Carolina, has many attractions and resources, including:

- Professional sports teams
- Major theater and music events
- Shopping malls and retail complexes
- International airport
- Parks and biking trails
- Nine Fortune 500 companies including Bank of America and Lowe's

About ELTI

Since 1978, the English Language Training Institute (ELTI) has served international students by providing quality English language instruction in a friendly academic environment.

ELTI is committed to helping students transition into the UNC Charlotte community by providing:

- Experienced English instructors
- Access to UNC Charlotte student resources (e.g., library, computer labs, health center, and sports facilities)
- Opportunity to connect with US students (e.g., conversation partners, student activities, and on-campus housing)
- Advanced students may be eligible to enroll in UNC Charlotte courses for credit
- TOEFL/IELTS waiver for UNC Charlotte undergraduates who successfully complete ELTI's highest level

ELTI students form close connections with the university and US American life during their stay.

UNC Charlotte also offers specialized short-term English programs. To learn more please visit intercultural.uncc.edu.

UNC Charlotte

With over 30,000 students, UNC Charlotte is one of the state's fastest growing universities and research centers. Home to over 1,300 international students, UNC Charlotte gives students a unique multicultural experience and welcomes diversity. Learn more at uncc.edu.

Conditional and Direct Admission to UNC Charlotte

Students who are academically admissible to undergraduate programs, but who do not yet have the required English proficiency test scores, may apply for conditional admission status. Students enroll first in ELTI, then once a satisfactory TOEFL or IELTS score is obtained, students may enter the University the next available term. Students who successfully pass ELTI's highest level can be directly admitted to UNC Charlotte without a TOEFL or IELTS.
